I-10 COVID-19 UPDATE
Presentation by Steve Delaney, Chief Executive Officer, OCERS

Steve Delaney presented the COVID-19 updates. He stated that mandatory remote telework will continue through May 31, 2020 and the Executive Team will decide Thursday, May 21, 2020 if mandatory remote telework will continue through June 15, 2020. He read the County of Orange advice article related to employee’s return to work:

"When having employees return to the workplace, determine the reasons it is necessary to have an employee return from telecommuting. Consider the following questions, “Is it operationally necessary and can you ensure social distancing if employees return to the workplace in the near future?”

OCERS plans a return to work phased in process with volunteers returning first. OCERS won’t be the first to fully be back nor the last.

Mr. Delaney described what “fully back” entails.

Mr. Delaney stated that before staff volunteers to return to the office, OCERS management needs to decide what the building will look like. OCERS is relying on experts such as Cushman Wakefield as well as the Orange County Department of Health, and also the County of Orange HR Department in determining what the necessary modifications will be in order to provide a safe work environment.

Mr. Delaney gave kudos to Cynthia Hockless who is in continuous contact with County HR and in turn informs the Executive Team of any issues. Also, he gave kudos to Gina Ratto who is monitoring a number of different legal sources including ReedSmith and CalPERS.

OCERS Executives have discussed how to keep up staff morale as well as track productivity. Furthermore, the Senior Executive Team meets every Monday to work out return to office details as well as the Crisis Management Team continues to meet twice weekly to review any COVID-related issues.

Mr. Delaney stated that OCERS is continuing to provide communication to stakeholders and retirees via the website, emails, and letters as well as via Zoom meetings. OCERS is still closed to the public but that will change at some future date.
