SUBJECT: REVIEW OF PROPOSED REVISIONS TO THE OCERS EMPLOYEE HANDBOOK

Recommendation

Approve, and recommend that the Board approve, the revised OCERS Employee Handbook as presented.

Background/Discussion

OCERS operates with a “split staff structure;” that is, with a workforce that is employed by the County of Orange and a workforce that is employed directly by OCERS, as provided by Government Code Section 31522.5.1

As required by subdivision (b) of section 31522.5, OCERS follows Orange County’s Personnel and Salary Resolution (P&SR), Merit Selection Rules, and the Memorandums of Understanding between the County and the respective unions for the County employees assigned to work at OCERS. The proposed revisions to the OCERS Employee Handbook do not change in any way the terms and conditions applicable to County employees. However, for the employees that are appointed pursuant to subdivision (a) of section 31522.5, OCERS must maintain personnel policies that set forth the terms and conditions of employment of those individuals.

1 Government Code section 31522.5 states, in pertinent part, as follows:

(a) In a county in which the board of retirement has appointed personnel pursuant to Section 31522.1, the board of retirement may appoint an administrator, an assistant administrator, a chief investment officer, senior management employees next in line of authority to the chief investment officer, subordinate administrators, senior management employees next in line of authority to subordinate administrators, and legal counsel.

(b) Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the personnel appointed pursuant to this section may not be county employees but shall be employees of the retirement system, subject to terms and conditions of employment established by the board of retirement. Except as specifically provided in this subdivision, all other personnel shall be county employees for purposes of the county’s employee relations resolution, or equivalent local rules, and the terms and conditions of employment established by the board of supervisors for county employees, including those set forth in a memorandum of understanding.
May 20, 2019, Personnel Committee Meeting

At the May 20th Personnel Committee meeting, Staff presented the proposed Employee Handbook. Detailed discussion took place regarding changes to six substantive policies as outlined below. The Personnel Committee members recommended that Staff make revisions to the Employee Handbook that was presented related to the following topics:

Item #1 At-Will Policy

The At-Will policy will pertain to all newly hired employees on the designated after the adoption of the Employee Handbook from the Board of Retirement. Grandfathered employees receiving an internal promotion will not be subjected to the At-Will policy.

Item #2 Annual Leave

After discussion with the Personnel Committee at the May 20th meeting, the OCERS CEO is recommending all new OCERS' direct employees Annual Leave bank be capped at a maximal amount of 16 weeks or 640 hours (80/8 hour days). This number was formulized using the current amount of disability leave granted under Federal Law for a maternity leave.

The Committee also requested that Staff provide information on what other Pension systems paid leave policies are related to maximal accrual amounts. Attached to this report is an Annual Leave (Vacation & Sick Pay) report outlining the maximal accrual rates for the ten (10) comparable agencies that OCERS utilized for their 2018 Total Compensation Study.

Item #5 Probation

Language related to a new probation for newly hired At-Will employees was removed from the proposed Employee Handbook document. Existing employees promoting into a higher classification (other than into a Senior Executive position) will be required to serve a 52-week probation. The policy was updated to reflect this.

Communication with OCERS Direct Staff

Throughout the extended period of time of developing the proposed Employee Handbook, the CEO and the Senior Executives have been in regular communication with the existing OCERS Direct Staff. The Staff was given multiple opportunities to review the draft policies and provide comments. Staff was also encouraged to raise any questions or concerns with the process and the Employee Handbook along the way. Some of the feedback that impacts the significant items outlined above are included below:

March 4, 2019, comments provided to the CEO from OCERS Direct Staff

“In general, the Employees’ preference would be for existing Employees to retain the current benefits as defined by the Personnel Policies and Regulations ("PP&R") handbook in effect as of this writing; that is, Employees would prefer to (1) not be subject to an annual leave accrual limit, and (2) not be classified as at-will employees, and thereby retain the progressive discipline policy outlined in the PP&R handbook. Employees understand and recognize that an annual leave accrual limit and at-will status may be beneficial for the agency in the future and are amenable to working closely with the Executive team to modify the annual leave accrual policy and at-will status for future Employees hired on or after the effective date of the in-progress Employee Handbook.

We welcome further discussion of these suggested changes and look forward to working with our Executive team and the Personnel Committee to arrive at a mutually beneficial solution to these items.”

May 30 Assistant CEO of Internal Operations Meetings with Staff

A meeting was held with existing OCERS Direct employees to review the outcome of the May 20th Personnel Committee meeting. Current employees continue to favor the idea of grandfathering all current employees under the current employment handbook. Employees voiced understanding of OCERS need to provide a limit for current employees Annual Leave bank but asked to host an internal meeting with current employees to discuss their position for a potential scenario where the Personnel Committee decided to propose a change to existing Staff’s unlimited accrual allowance.
June 13 Response Received from the OCERS Direct Staff

With respect to the implementation of an annual leave cap, the preference of the OCERS Direct team remains to be grandfathered under the terms of the existing unlimited annual leave accrual provision. Should it be determined that this is not possible, the OCERS Direct team is amenable to working with OCERS’ executive management group and the Personnel Committee to implement a mutually beneficial agreement. The group would view the loss of unlimited leave accrual as a change to the original employment contract under which current OCERS Direct personnel were hired and would submit the following as a fair exchange:

- Implement an annual leave cap of 1,040 hours\(^1\), with overflow hours being immediately cashed out.
- Increase the annual leave cash-out from 90 hours to 120 hours as presented to the Personnel Committee in the 2019 OCERS Total Compensation Policy memorandum of June 4, 2019.

\(^1\) At the time of writing, a leave cap of 1,040 hours would have a direct and immediate impact on three OCERS Direct personnel who currently have annual leave balances in excess of 1,040 hours. We ask that the OCERS Direct team be involved in any discussions as to what will happen with the excess annual leave balances for these three employees (e.g., immediate payout, establishment of “legacy” leave bucket, etc.).

Staff would like the Personnel Committee to review and approve the recommendations of the CEO as outlined above in regards to the OCERS Direct Employee Handbook. It should be noted that the effective date of the new Employee Handbook can be effective either the first of the month following the approval by the Board of Retirement or on such date as designated by the Board. The dates within the Employee Handbook will be updated to reflect the effective date of the revised Employee Handbook as approved by the OCERS Board of Retirement.

Introduction to Personnel Policies

Policy Statement

Orange County Employees Retirement System’s (“OCERS”) Employee Policy Handbook is provided to employees for their use as a ready reference and as a collection of OCERS’ personnel policies, work rules, and benefits. Employees are required to become familiar with the policies in a timely manner after the start of employment with OCERS.

Scope/Coverage

These Personnel Policies supersede all previously promulgated policies on this topic, including the PP&R (defined below) and Employee Handbook and apply to personnel who are employed by OCERS the following entities unless otherwise specified:

1. OCERS;
2. Orange County (County employees who work at OCERS); and
3. Third-party vendors and contract employees.

Authority

OCERS’ Personnel Policies and Regulations (“PP&R”) were adopted originally by the Board of Retirement (Board) on November 11, 2002, pursuant to California Government Code Sections 31468, 31522.5, 31557.3, and 31678.3.

The Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”) has the duty to recommend to the Board these Personnel Policies. Additionally, the CEO is authorized to assess human resources needs; to establish and implement appropriate human resources programs and procedures, consistent with the personnel policies of the Board; to hire, manage and terminate senior management, and oversee the hiring of management and termination of staff; and to develop training and job development programs for OCERS as approved in the Administrative Budget.

These Personnel Policies do not create a contract for employment. With respect to employees employed by the County of Orange, the intent is that these personnel policies will be interpreted in a manner that is consistent with the provisions of applicable Memorandums of Understanding [“MOU”]; provided, however, to the extent they do conflict, the MOU will control as long as it is consistent with applicable law.

OCERS retains the right to modify, change, revise, supplement, delete, or rescind any or all of its Personnel Policies, at any time, without notice, whenever OCERS determines that such action is required.

For questions regarding any of these policies, please contact Administrative Services.

Employment with OCERS is “at-will”, which means it may be terminated at any time and for any reason, with or without cause or advance notice, by either the employee or OCERS.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to establish an at-will relationship between OCERS-direct employees hired directly by OCERS on or after January July 1, 2019 and OCERS.

Scope/Coverage

2. Employment is at the mutual consent of each employee and OCERS, and as a result, may be terminated by OCERS or the employee at any time, with or without cause or advance notice. The CEO must approve all terminations of at-will employees.

3. The at-will status of the employment relationship between OCERS and its employees hired on or after January July 1, 2019, cannot be altered by any oral or written statements, guidelines or policies contained in any of OCERS documents or communications, except where there is an express written agreement that is signed by the employee and OCERS’ Chief Executive Officer.

4. Completion of, or participation in, an introductory period of employment does not change an employee’s status as an at-will employee.

5. If an employee hired by OCERS prior to July 1, 2019 receives a promotion into a non-Senior Executive position, he/she will retain their grandfathered status and the At-Will Policy will not apply.

Interactive Process and Accommodations Policy

OCERS is committed to principles of equal employment opportunity for all employees.

Purpose
The purpose of the policy is to comply with state and federal law and to enable qualified individuals with disabilities to perform the essential functions of their jobs and to enjoy equal employment opportunities.

Scope/Coverage
This policy supersedes all previously promulgated policies on this topic and applies to individuals who are employed by the following entities: OCERS.

1. OCERS; and
2. County of Orange (County employees who work at OCERS)

Provisions

1. Eligibility
Any qualified individual with a physical disability, mental disability or medical condition that limits a major life activity, including his or her ability to work, is eligible for Reasonable Accommodations from OCERS to enable him or her to perform the Essential Job Functions.

2. Accommodation Request
   a. An employee may make a request for an accommodation or a family member, friend, health professional, or other representative may make a request on behalf of an employee. The request does not have to be made in writing and there are no specific words required to request an accommodation.
   b. Employees or their representatives are encouraged to make requests for Reasonable Accommodations directly to Administrative Services. Employees may also make a request for accommodations to his or her supervisor who must immediately relay the request to Administrative Services.
   c. Administrative Services will consider each request for Reasonable Accommodation and determine: (1) whether the accommodation is needed, (2) if needed, whether the accommodation would be effective, and (3) if effective, whether providing the Reasonable Accommodation would impose an undue hardship to OCERS.

3. Accommodations Absent a Request
   a. When OCERS is put on notice that an employee cannot perform his or her job duties due to a physical disability, mental disability, or medical condition, OCERS must engage an employee in the Interactive Process (see below), even when that employee has not made a request for an accommodation. OCERS can be put on notice that an employee may require an accommodation by a third party, by observation, or when a disabled employee has exhausted her or her protected leave (see OCERS Family and Medical Leave Policy) and his or her health care provider indicates the need for continued leave or other accommodations.

4. Interactive Process
a. Upon an employee’s request for an accommodation or acceptance of OCERS’ offer to consider an accommodation, Administrative Services, with input from the employee’s supervisor when appropriate, and County Human Resources where applicable, will initiate a dialogue with the employee to determine what accommodations are available to the employee. This dialogue may include:

i. A review of the employee’s work limitations or restrictions that require accommodation;

ii. A review of the employee’s Essential Job Functions;

iii. The identification of accommodations requested by the employee; and,

iv. The identification of potential accommodations available to OCERS and an assessment of the effectiveness that each would have in enabling the employee to perform the Essential Job Functions.

b. OCERS will not ask an employee or his or her health care provider to reveal the diagnosis or underlying medical condition that requires an accommodation.

c. An employee must cooperate with OCERS in the Interactive Process. Cooperation includes providing documentation regarding work restrictions or limitations, communicating with OCERS, and exchanging essential information without delay or obstruction of the process.

d. An employee may refuse the offer of an accommodation that the employee deems unnecessary or not needed. However, the employee may not be qualified to remain in the job if he/she needs a Reasonable Accommodation to perform an essential function and refuses to accept a Reasonable Accommodation. Further, the rejection of a Reasonable Accommodation may terminate OCERS’ obligation to engage further in the Interactive Process under certain circumstances.

e. Administrative Services may require an employee to provide reasonable medical documentation of the need for accommodation. However, any genetic information is to be excluded when responding to requests for medical information, in accordance with the Genetic Information Non-Discrimination Act of 2008 (GINA).

f. Upon identifying possible accommodations, Administrative Services may grant the employee’s requested accommodation, or reject it after due consideration and initiate discussion with the employee regarding alternative accommodations.

g. The Interactive Process will be documented.

5. Accommodation Request Grant

a. While OCERS will consider an employee’s preference for accommodation, OCERS has the right to implement an accommodation that is effective to assist the employee to perform his or her Essential Job Functions. OCERS has the ultimate discretion to choose between effective accommodations, and may choose the less expensive accommodation or the accommodation that is more feasible for it to provide.

b. OCERS will not disclose to other employees that a disabled employee is receiving a Reasonable Accommodation unless a disclosure is necessary to effectuate the accommodation.
c. For Reasonable Accommodations that extend beyond one year or beyond the date set forth in medical documentation submitted by an employee, OCERS may ask for medical documentation substantiating the need for continued accommodation on a yearly basis.

d. If a granted accommodation is not effective, OCERS will resume the Interactive Process to attempt to identify other more effective accommodations.

6. Accommodation Request Denial

   a. The law does not require OCERS to provide any and every accommodation requested by an employee. OCERS is required to provide only those accommodations that would allow an employee to perform the Essential Job Functions of his or her position and/or to enjoy equal employment opportunity. Accommodations that would impose an undue hardship on OCERS’ operations are not required.

   b. If OCERS denies an employee’s requested accommodation, it will continue the Interactive Process to attempt to identify other possible accommodations.

7. Compliance with Applicable Law

   a. This policy and all of its provisions are subject to such other terms and conditions as are provided in the Rehabilitation Act of 1973, the Americans with Disabilities Act (“ADA”), and the Fair Employment and Housing Act (“FEHA”). An employer is prohibited from discriminating or retaliating against an employee for requesting, accepting, or rejecting an accommodation.

   b. An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Equal Opportunity Commission or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer for failure to comply with the Rehabilitation Act, the ADA, or the FEHA.

   c. For questions about the exercise of rights pursuant to the Rehabilitation Act, the ADA, or the FEHA, contacts Administrative Services.

Family and Medical Leave of Absence Policy

Policy Statement
OCERS provides eligible employees leave under the federal Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and the California Family Rights Act (CFRA). OCERS intends to administer this policy in accordance with all applicable state and federal law, as amended.

Purpose
The purpose of this policy is to provide leave to employees in compliance with FMLA and CFRA, and to inform employees and managers of their responsibilities in requesting or providing such leaves.

Scope/Coverage
This policy supersedes all previously promulgated policies on this topic and applies to all personnel who are employed by the following entities: OCERS,

1. OCERS; and
2. Orange County (County employees who work at OCERS)

Provisions
1. Eligibility
   a. An employee is eligible for leave under the FMLA and CFRA if he/she:
      i. Has been employed by OCERS for at least twelve months; and
      ii. Has worked at least 1,250 hours during the 12-month period immediately preceding commencement of the leave.

2. Leave Entitlement
   a. FMLA: An employee is entitled to a leave of absence under the FMLA because of:
      i. The employee’s own serious health condition;
      ii. The care of a child, spouse, or parent with a serious health condition;
      iii. The birth of a child and to care for the child within the first year of birth; or
      iv. The care of an adopted or foster child within the first year of placement with the employee.
   b. CFRA: An employee is entitled to a leave of absence under the CFRA for all of the reasons listed above for entitlement to FMLA leave. Unlike the FMLA leave, an employee is not entitled to leave due to pregnancy disability under the CFRA. (see OCERS Human Resources Policy: Pregnancy and Pregnancy Disability Leave). If an employee takes FMLA for pregnancy disability, the employee may still be eligible for an additional 12 weeks of leave under CFRA for other family and medical leave purposes. CFRA also provides an eligible employee with up to 12 weeks of leave to care for a domestic partner with a serious health condition.

3. Notice of Need for Leave
a. Employee’s Obligations: In order to obtain FMLA or CFRA leave, an employee must inform OCERS of his or her need for leave verbally or in writing. For all FMLA or CFRA leaves other than Military Exigency Leave (see OCERS Administrative Services Policy: Military Family Leave), an employee must give OCERS 30 calendar days’ notice of his or her need for leave if that employee knows of the leave in advance. If an employee does not have advance notice of the need for FMLA or CFRA leave, that employee must provide OCERS with her or her need for leave as soon as practicable. Failure to comply with this provision may result in FMLA or CFRA leave being denied or delayed. However, if the need for leave results from an emergency or is otherwise unforeseeable, the leave will not be denied simply because an employee fails to provide advance notice.

b. OCERS Obligations: Any OCERS manager or supervisor who receives notice that an employee may need time off for a FMLA or CFRA qualifying reason must immediately notify Administrative Services. Administrative Services will provide the employee with information about her or his or her rights under FMLA or CFRA and will determine whether the employee is eligible for FMLA or CFRA leave.

4. Leave Designation

a. Upon an employee’s request for FMLA or CFRA leave, Administrative Services will inform the employee within five (5) business days whether he/she is entitled to FMLA or CFRA leave. If Administrative Services determines that the employee is not eligible for FMLA or CFRA leave, the employee will be informed of the reasons for ineligibility, including any additional information required from the employee.

b. OCERS is responsible for designating time off work, paid or unpaid, as FMLA, CFRA, both FMLA/CFRA leave. OCERS will give the employee notice of said designation. OCERS may conditionally designate time off work as FMLA, CFRA or both FMLA/CFRA leave pending receipt of appropriate medical certification and eligibility determination.

c. If OCERS learns that an employee’s absence was for a FMLA or CFRA leave-qualifying purpose after the absence has begun, OCERS may, in its discretion, retroactively designate the entire absence or some portion of the time off work as FMLA, CFRA, or both FMLA/CFRA leave, to the extent that the period qualified as FMLA, CFRA, or both FMLA/CFRA leave, and as long as a late designation did not cause an employee to take leave he/she would not have taken if he/she had known the leave would be counted against her or his or her FMLA/CFRA entitlement.

d. An eligible employee who takes a leave for a FMLA or CFRA leave-qualifying reason cannot avoid having the time counted against her or his or her FMLA or CFRA entitlement by stating he/she does not want it considered as FMLA or CFRA leave.

5. Medical Certification

a. OCERS may conditionally designate a leave for purposes of personal or family illness while notifying the employee that final FMLA/CFRA leave designation depends on the employee’s timely submission of a satisfactory medical certification.

b. An employee must obtain the treating Health Care Provider’s medical certification and submit it to OCERS within 15 calendar days of OCERS’s request for the medical certification, unless there are extenuating circumstances that make this impracticable despite the employee’s diligent, good faith efforts or OCERS provides additional time.
Untimely submission of medical certification may result in denial of FMLA/CFRA protection for the employee’s absence, making the absence subject to OCERS’ Attendance Policy.

c. An employee must provide a complete and sufficient medical certification to OCERS. If the employee does not, OCERS will provide the employee with seven (7) calendar days to cure the deficiency. If an employee fails to provide appropriate medical certification within the time limits, OCERS may deny FMLA/CFRA protection for the employee’s absence and may impose penalties pursuant to the Attendance Policy or deny the employee reinstatement to work.

d. For FMLA/CFRA, OCERS requires that the employee provide the following documentation:

i. Medical certification from the treating Health Care Provider that the employee (1) needs a period of leave because of a serious health condition affecting the employee or her or his or her child, parent, spouse, or domestic partner; (2) needs Intermittent Leave for the serious health condition of the employee or his or her child, parent, spouse, or domestic partner; or (3) needs a reduced work schedule for the employee’s own serious health condition.

ii. Recertification by the treating Health Care Provider may be required every thirty (30) calendar days in connection with an employee’s absence, unless the following apply:

1. If the medical certification indicates that the minimum duration of the condition is more than 30 calendar days, OCERS may request recertification when that minimum duration has occurred;

2. OCERS may request recertification in less than 30 calendar days if the employee requests an extension of leave; there has been a significant change in circumstances, such as the duration or frequency of the absences or the severity of the condition; or OCERS receives information that casts doubt on the employee’s stated reason for the absence.

iii. The employee may be required, at OCERS’s expense, to obtain the opinion of a second and third Health Care Provider supporting the need for FMLA/CFRA leave due to a serious health condition affecting the employee.

e. The Genetic Information Non-Discrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits OCERS from requesting or requiring genetic information of an employee or family member of the employee, except as specifically allowed by this law (e.g., to certify the need for leave for family member’s serious health condition). To comply with this GINA, OCERS asks that you and your Health Care Provider not provide any genetic information when responding to a request for medical information or a certification. “Genetic Information” as defined by GINA includes an individual’s family medical history, the results of an individual’s or family member’s genetic tests, the fact that an individual or an individual’s family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual’s family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services.

6. Family Leave for Newborn or Newly Adopted Child
a. FMLA/CFRA leave for the care of a newborn, or a newly placed adopted or foster child, must conclude within one year of the birth or placement. FMLA/CFRA leave for placement of an adopted or foster child may commence prior to the placement if the absence from work is required for the placement to proceed.

7. Length of Leave

a. An employee may take up to 12 workweeks of FMLA/CFRA leave within a 12-month period. For all FMLA/CFRA leave other than military caregiver leave (See OCERS Military Family Leave Policy), OCERS calculates FMLA/CFRA leave using a 12-month rolling period which is measured backward from the date an employee uses FMLA/CFRA leave. Each time an employee takes FMLA/CFRA leave, the remaining leave entitlement is the balance of the 12 workweeks which the employee has not used during the immediately preceding 12 months.

b. If an employee needs to extend his or her leave and her initial FMLA/CFRA leave was less than 12 weeks he/she must request an extension for FMLA/CFRA leave. The employee must notify OCERS as soon as he/she has knowledge of the need but not later than two business days before the anticipated return to work date, where the need for an extension is foreseeable. For extension of FMLA/CFRA leave relating to a serious health condition, employees must provide a Health Care Provider’s recertification within 15 calendar days of OCERS’ request, if practicable.

c. If an employee has taken the entire 12 weeks FMLA/CFRA leave permitted under the law, and he/she still needs additional leave, he/she can request additional leave under the Authorized Unpaid Leaves of Absence Policy. The employee must notify OCERS as soon as he/she has knowledge of the need but not later than two business days before the anticipated return to work date, where the need for an extension is foreseeable. For extensions relating to a serious health condition, employees must provide a Health Care Provider’s recertification within 15 calendar days of OCERS’ request, if practicable.

d. Upon expiration of the time needed for FMLA/CFRA leave set forth in any medical certification document and in the absence of recertification, the leave will automatically terminate and the employee will be expected to return to work, unless OCERS has approved additional non-FMLA/CFRA leave. If an employee fails to return to work within three days after the approved FMLA/CFRA leave or other approved leave expires, the employee may be subject to the penalties imposed by OCERS’ Attendance Policy up to and including termination.

e. OCERS may require an employee on leave to report periodically on the employee’s status and intent to return to work.

8. Intermittent Leave or Reduced Work Schedule

a. Intermittent Leave or a reduced work schedule may be approved with medical certification for an employee’s serious health condition or for the employee to care for a child, parent, spouse, or domestic partner (under the CFRA only) with a serious health condition.

b. For Intermittent Leave or leave on a reduced work schedule, there must be a medical need for leave and it must be that such medical need can be best met through an intermittent or reduced leave schedule. OCERS may request that the treating Health Care Provider verify that an employee’s pattern of absences is consistent with the need for the Intermittent Leave.

c. When an employee takes leave on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule, only the amount of leave actually taken is counted toward the 12 weeks of leave to which an employee is entitled.

d. An Exempt Employee on FMLA/CFRA leave with medical certification stating that he/she will need to work reduced hours may have her or his or her salary reduced proportionately for the hours not worked. Employees may substitute accrued annual leave to avoid the loss of pay.

e. Under CFRA, an employee who wishes to take Intermittent Leave to care for and bond with a child within one year of the birth or placement of the child must take the leave in increments of two weeks or more at a time, with the exception that leaves of less than two weeks can be taken twice during the year.

9. Compensation and Benefits Continuation during FMLA/CFRA Leave

a. An employee is required to use her or his or her accrued Annual Leave and where applicable, vacation and sick leave during FMLA/CFRA leave.

b. OCERS will maintain health care benefits while an employee is on FMLA/CFRA leave, whether it is paid or unpaid, for a maximum of 12 workweeks in a 12-month period. Health care benefits coverage may be extended because the employee is also entitled to additional leave under the Pregnancy Disability Leave Law (See OCERS Pregnancy and Pregnancy Disability Leave Policy), or other OCERS-approved leaves.

10. Continuation of Health Coverage (COBRA)

a. If an employee exhausts all eligibility for continuation of OCERS-paid health care benefits, the employee may extend those benefits at his or her own expense through COBRA.

11. Coordination with Other Leaves

a. FMLA and CFRA leave will run concurrently with all other paid and unpaid family and medical-related leaves when determining the maximum duration of the leaves. However, CFRA leave does not run concurrently with an FMLA Pregnancy Disability Leave (See Pregnancy and Pregnancy Disability Leave Policy).

b. CFRA leave to care for a domestic partner with a serious health condition does not count as FMLA leave.

c. FMLA and CFRA leaves run concurrently with occupational leaves of absence when an employee has a serious health condition that meets the requirements for an Occupational Medical Leave (See Occupational Medical Leave Policy).

d. FMLA and CFRA leave runs concurrently with Kin Care under the California Employment Sick Leave Act when it is for an FMLA and CFRA-qualifying reason.

12. Return from Leave and Reinstatement

a. OCERS encourages employees returning from leave to provide his or her manager with at least 14 calendar days’ advance notice of the date on which he/she intends to return to work. OCERS requires reasonable notice, which is typically at least two business days, if there is a change in the date on which the employee will be ready and able to return to work. If the employee provides less than 14 calendar days’ advance notice of the intended date of return to work, OCERS may delay the date on which it reinstates the employee in order to allow two additional business days in which to make arrangements, such as scheduling adjustments for the employee’s return to work.

b. When FMLA or CFRA leave is taken for an employee’s own serious health condition and the leave extends for a period of 14 days or more, the employee will be required to submit medical certification from her or her Health Care Provider at or before the date of return to work indicating that the employee is fit to return to work either with or without work restrictions. Delay in providing a certification may result in OCERS delaying the employee’s return to work until such time as the certificate is obtained. If the employee fails or refuses to provide a return to work certification, OCERS may deny reinstatement and terminate her or her employment.

c. If an employee has complied with his or her obligations under this policy, OCERS will reinstate the employee to her or his or her former position, if the position is available. If the former position is not available, the employee will be reinstated to an equivalent position with equivalent benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment. An equivalent position will involve the same or substantially the same duties, responsibilities, and authority, and will entail substantially the same skills and efforts. OCERS may not reinstate an employee to his or her former position or an equivalent position if OCERS’ business conditions resulted in the elimination of the employee’s former position during the leave or the employee would not otherwise have continued to be employed had he/she continued in active employment.

d. An employee’s use of FMLA/CFRA leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that the employee earned or was entitled to before commencing FMLA or CFRA leave.

e. An employee has no greater right to reinstatement or to other benefits and conditions of employment than if the employee had been continuously employed during the FMLA/CFRA leave period.

f. A Key Employee who takes a Family Medical Leave of Absence may be denied reinstatement if this would cause substantial and grievous economic injury to OCERS’ operations.

13. Compliance with Applicable Law

a. This policy and all of its provisions are subject to such other terms and conditions as are provided in the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and applicable California leave laws. An employer is prohibited from interfering with an eligible employee’s right to take either an FMLA or CFRA leave or discriminating or retaliating against an employee for taking such a leave or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to the FMLA or CFRA.

b. An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer for failure to comply with the FMLA or CFRA.

c. For questions about the exercise of FMLA or CFRA rights, contact Administrative Services.

Pregnancy Disability Leave Policy

Policy Statement

OCERS provides eligible employees pregnancy disability leave under the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA), the Fair Employment and Housing Act (FEHA), and the California Pregnancy Disability Leave Regulations (PDL). OCERS intends to administer this policy in accordance with all applicable state and federal law.

Purpose

The purpose of this policy is to provide pregnancy disability leave to employees in compliance with the FMLA, the FEHA, the PDL, and to inform employees and managers of their responsibilities in requesting or providing such leaves.

Scope/Coverage

This policy supersedes all previously promulgated policies on this topic and applies to individuals who are employed by OCERS.

1. OCERS; and
2. County of Orange (County Employees who work at OCERS)

Provisions

1. Eligibility
   a. FMLA: An employee is eligible for leave under the FMLA if the employee:
      i. Has been employed by OCERS for at least twelve months; and
      ii. Has worked at least 1250 hours during the 12–month period immediately preceding commencement of the leave
   b. PDL: An employee is eligible for pregnancy disability leave upon the commencement of employment.

2. Leave Entitlement
   a. FMLA: An employee who is Disabled by Pregnancy, childbirth or related medical condition may take up to 12 workweeks of leave during a 12-month period.
   b. PDL:
      i. An employee who is Disabled by Pregnancy, childbirth or related medical condition is entitled to up to four months (17-1/3 weeks) of leave under PDL. Up to twelve (12) workweeks of this time is concurrently counted as leave under FMLA but is not counted as leave under California Family Rights Act (CFRA) (See OCERS Family and Medical Leave Policy). An employee who has taken PDL is entitled to an additional twelve (12) workweeks under CFRA for other family and medical leave purposes such as taking care of the newborn child within the first year of birth.
      ii. An employee affected by pregnancy or a related medical condition is eligible to transfer to a less strenuous position (if one is available) or to be given a reasonable accommodation, if such a transfer or accommodation is based on the advice of the Health Care Provider.

3. Notice of Need for Leave

   a. Employee’s Obligations:

      i. An employee must provide OCERS with at least 30 calendar days’ advance notice of the date on which a PDL leave, transfer, or reasonable accommodation will begin. If an employee does not have advance notice, that employee must notify OCERS of the need for leave as soon as practicable. Failure to comply with this provision may result in the delay of a leave, an accommodation, or a transfer but under no circumstances shall it result in the delay of such a request if doing so would endanger an employee’s health or pregnancy. In addition, if the need for leave, transfer or an accommodation results from an emergency or is otherwise unforeseeable, the leave, transfer or accommodation will not be denied simply because an employee failed to provide advance notice.

   b. OCERS Obligations: Any OCERS manager or supervisor who receives notice that an employee may need time off for a PDL qualifying reason must immediately notify Administrative Services. Administrative Services will provide to the employee information regarding rights under PDL and will determine whether the employee is eligible for leave.

4. Leave Designation

   a. Upon an employee’s request for PDL leave, transfer, or reasonable accommodation, the Director of Administrative Services will inform the employee within five (5) business days whether the employee is entitled to the leave, transfer or accommodation. If the Director of Administrative Services determines that the employee is not eligible, the employee will be informed of the reasons for ineligibility, including any additional information required from the employee. The employee may appeal the decision to the Director of Administrative Services within 15 days of notice of the denial. Upon receipt of an appeal, the Director of Administrative Services shall provide the appeal to the Chief Executive Officer or to the Chief Executive Officer’s designee for final determination.

   b. OCERS is responsible for designating time off work, paid or unpaid, as FMLA/PDL leave, and for giving the employee notice of whether the time off has been designated as FMLA/PDL leave or not. OCERS may conditionally designate time off work as FMLA/PDL leave pending receipt of appropriate medical certification and eligibility determination.

   c. If OCERS learns that an employee’s absence was for a FMLA/PDL leave-qualifying purpose after the absence has begun, OCERS may, in its discretion, retroactively designate the entire absence or some portion of the time off work as FMLA/PDL leave, to the extent that the period qualified as FMLA/PDL leave, and as long as a late designation did not cause an employee to take leave the employee would not have taken if she had known the leave would be counted against the employee’s FMLA/PDL entitlement.

   d. An eligible employee who takes a leave for an FMLA/PDL leave-qualifying reason cannot avoid having the time counted against the employee’s FMLA/PDL entitlement by stating he/she does not want it considered as FMLA/PDL leave.

5. Medical Certification
a. An employee requesting PDL leave, a transfer, or a reasonable accommodation must provide OCERS with a written medical certification from the employee's Health Care Provider.

b. The medical certification from the treating Health Care Provider must state that the employee needs a period of leave, a transfer, a reasonable accommodation, Intermittent Leave, or a reduced work schedule due to a pregnancy disability, childbirth or a related medical condition. The medical certification should also set forth the duration of said leave, transfer or reasonable accommodation.

c. An employee must obtain the treating Health Care Provider’s medical certification and submit it to OCERS within 15 calendar days of OCERS’s request for the medical certification, unless there are extenuating circumstances that make this impracticable despite the employee’s diligent, good faith efforts or if OCERS provides additional time. Untimely submission of a medical certification may result in denial of FMLA/PDL protection for the employee’s absence, making the absence subject to OCERS’ Attendance Policy.

d. An employee must provide a complete and sufficient medical certification to OCERS. If complete and sufficient medical certification is not provided, OCERS will grant the employee seven (7) calendar days to cure the deficiency. If an employee fails to provide appropriate medical certification within the time limits, OCERS may deny FMLA/PDL protection for the employee’s absence and may impose penalties pursuant to the Attendance Policy or deny the employee reinstatement to work.

e. Recertification by the treating Health Care Provider may be required every thirty (30) calendar days in connection with an employee’s leave, transfer or reasonable accommodation, unless the following applies:

   i. If the medical certification indicates that the minimum duration of the condition is more than 30 calendar days, OCERS may request recertification when that minimum duration expires;

   ii. OCERS may request recertification in less than 30 calendar days if the employee requests an extension of leave; there has been a significant change in circumstances, such as the duration or frequency of the absences or the severity of the condition; or OCERS receives information that casts doubt on the employee’s stated reason for the absence.

f. The employee may be required, at OCERS’ expense, to obtain the opinion of a second and third Health Care Provider supporting the need for PDL leave due to a pregnancy disability, childbirth or a related medical condition affecting the employee.

g. The Genetic Information Non-Discrimination Act of 2008 (GINA) prohibits OCERS from requesting or requiring genetic information of an employee or family member of the employee, except as specifically allowed by GINA (e.g., to certify the need for leave for family member’s serious health condition). To comply with this law, OCERS requests that you and your Health Care Provider omit any genetic information when responding to a request for medical information or a certification. “Genetic Information” as defined by GINA includes an individual’s family medical history, the results of an individual’s or family member’s genetic tests, the fact that an individual or an individual’s family member sought or received genetic services, and genetic information of a fetus carried by an individual or an individual’s family member or an embryo lawfully held by an individual or family member receiving assistive reproductive services.

6. Extending Leave

   a. If an employee’s initial request for PDL leave was less than the four months (17-1/3 weeks) permitted under the law, and it becomes necessary to extend the leave, the employee can request an extension of the PDL leave. OCERS must be notified as soon as the employee has knowledge of the need, but not later than two (2) business days before the anticipated return to work date, where the need for an extension is foreseeable. The employee must provide a Health Care Provider’s recertification within 15 calendar days of OCERS’ request, if practicable.

   b. If an employee has taken the entire four months (17-1/3 weeks) PDL leave permitted under the law and still needs additional leave, the employee can request additional leave under the Authorized Unpaid Leaves of Absence Policy. The employee must notify OCERS as soon as the need is identified, but not later than two (2) business days before the anticipated return to work date, where the need for an extension is foreseeable. The employee must provide a Health Care Provider’s recertification within 15 calendar days of OCERS’ request, if practicable.

   c. Upon expiration of the time needed for PDL leave as set forth in any medical certification or a recertification, the leave will automatically terminate and the employee will be expected to return to work, unless OCERS has approved additional non-PDL leave. If an employee fails to return to work within three (3) days after the approved PDL leave or other approved leave expires, the employee may be subject to the penalties imposed by OCERS Attendance Policy up to and including termination.

   d. OCERS may require an employee on leave to report periodically on the employee’s status and intent to return to work.

7. Intermittent Leave or Reduced Work Schedule

   a. Intermittent Leave or a reduced work schedule may be approved with medical certification for an employee’s condition related to pregnancy disability, childbirth, or a related medical condition.

   b. For Intermittent Leave or leave on a reduced work schedule, there must be a medical need for leave and it must be that such medical need can be best met through an intermittent or reduced leave schedule. OCERS may request that the treating Health Care Provider verify that an employee’s pattern of absences is consistent with the need for the Intermittent Leave.

   c. When an employee takes leave on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule, only the amount of leave actually taken is counted toward the four months (17-1/3 weeks) of leave to which an employee is entitled.

   d. An exempt employee on PDL leave with medical certification stating the need to work reduced hours may have her or his salary reduced proportionately for the hours not worked. Employees may substitute accrued annual leave benefits to avoid the loss of pay.

8. Compensation and Benefits Continuation during PDL Leave

a. An employee may elect, at her or his or her option, to use accrued annual leave during PDL leave.

b. OCERS will maintain health care benefits while an employee is on PDL leave, whether it is paid or unpaid for a maximum of four months (17-1/3 weeks). Benefits coverage may be extended because the employee is also entitled to additional leave under other OCERS-approved leaves.

c. If an employee exhausts all eligibility for continuation of OCERS-paid health care benefits, the employee may extend those benefits at the employee’s own expense through COBRA.

9. Coordination with Other Leaves

a. FMLA and CFRA leave will run concurrent with all other paid and unpaid family and medical-related leaves when determining the maximum duration of the leaves. However, CFRA leave does not run concurrently with PDL.

10. Return from Leave and Reinstatement

a. OCERS encourages employees returning from leave to provide her or his or her manager with at least fourteen (14) calendar days advance notice of the date on which he/she intends to return to work. OCERS requires reasonable notice, which is typically two (2) business days, if there is a change in the date on which the employee will be ready and able to return to work. If the employee provides less notice of the intended return to work, OCERS may delay the date on which it reinstates the employee in order to allow two (2) business days in which to make arrangements, such as scheduling adjustments, for the employee’s return to work.

b. If an employee’s PDL leave exceeded 14 days, the employee will be required to submit a medical certification from the employee’s Health Care Provider at or before the date of return to work, indicating that the employee is fit to return to work either with or without work restrictions. Delay in providing a certification may result in OCERS delaying the employee’s return to work until such time as the certificate is obtained; if the employee fails or refuses to provide a return to work certification, OCERS may deny reinstatement and terminate employment.

c. Upon return from PDL leave, an employee will be reinstated to the same position held prior to commencing leave or to a comparable position. If, however, employment in that position would have ceased even if PDL had not been taken (e.g., limited term positions), the employee will not be returned to the same position following PDL. An employee returning from PDL whose employment would have ceased even if PDL had not been taken may be placed in a comparable position with equivalent benefits, pay and other terms and conditions of employment, depending upon the reason why employment would not have continued had the employee remained in active employment. Such placement in a comparable position should occur on the agreed upon date the employee was to return from PDL. If no return date had been agreed to, it should occur within two (2) business days of the notice of return. If not possible within two (2) business days, then the employee should be returned to a comparable position as soon as possible. If a comparable position for the returning employee is available within 60 calendar days following the scheduled return date, then reinstatement to the comparable position must occur. During this 60-day period, the employee will be notified of all comparable positions that are available; however, the employee must be qualified to perform the job duties of the comparable position. Employees whose leave extended beyond PDL under other available leaves, such as CFRA, may be returned to a comparable position in accordance with policies applicable to such other available leaves.

d. An employee’s use of PDL leave will not result in the loss of any employment benefit that the employee earned or was entitled to before commencing PDL leave.

e. An employee has no greater right to reinstatement or to other benefits and conditions of employment than if the employee had been continuously employed during the PDL leave period.

11. Compliance with Applicable Law

a. This policy and all of its provisions are subject to such other terms and conditions as are provided in the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 and applicable California leave laws. An employer is prohibited from interfering with an eligible employee’s right to take an FMLA, CFRA, or PDL leave or discriminating or retaliating against an employee for taking such a leave or for involvement in any proceeding under or relating to the FMLA, CFRA, or PDL.

b. An employee may file a complaint with the U.S. Department of Labor, the U.S. Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or the California Department of Fair Employment and Housing, or may bring a private lawsuit against an employer for failure to comply with the FMLA, CFRA, or PDL.

2. County of Orange (County Employees who work at OCERS)

Provisions

1. Military Leave
   a. Eligibility: Federal and state mandated-military leaves of absence are granted to members of the United States Uniformed Services, the California National Guard, or the reserves. To be eligible, you must submit written verification from the appropriate military authority. Such leaves will be granted in accordance with state and federal law.
   b. Pay: An employee who has been employed with OCERS for a year prior to the commencement of a military leave is entitled to receive their regular pay for 30 days following the commencement of a military leave.
   c. Benefits: When an employee goes on Military Leave for more than 30 days, any applicable group insurance (existing provisions will apply) continues for 90 days following the commencement of unpaid Military Leave. Beyond the 90 days, the employee may elect to continue the same group health care coverage, including dependent coverage, if applicable, for up to 24 months at her or his own expense.
   d. Use of Annual Leave: An employee may elect to use earned Annual Leave at the beginning of unpaid military service or may retain earned and accrued Annual Leave for use upon return from the leave. The employee must provide this request/election in writing to her or his supervisor prior to the start of the military leave.
   e. Reinstatement: At the conclusion of military service, an employee will be reinstated upon giving notice of intent to return to work by either (1) reporting to work or (2) submitting a timely oral or written request to OCERS for reinstatement within ninety (90) days after release from active duty or any extended period required by law. The Military Leave will expire upon the employee’s failure to request reinstatement or return to work in a timely manner after conclusion of service.
i. Reinstatement Procedure

1. An employee must give advance verbal or written notice of military service in order to be eligible for reemployment rights and benefits upon completion of military service, unless giving notice is precluded by military necessity or circumstances that make it impossible or unreasonable to give such notice. The advance notice should be given as soon as the employee knows of the military service dates and the employee should submit to the supervisor a copy of the military orders, if available, regarding the dates and duration of the leave.

2. An employee returning from military service of less than 31 days’ duration must report to work not later than the beginning of the second full regularly scheduled work period on the first calendar day following completion of service unless doing so is impractical.

3. An employee returning from military service of more than 30 days’ duration must submit a request for reemployment:
   a. No later than 14 days after the completion of service of less than 181 days.
   b. No later than 90 days after completion of service of more than 180 days.

4. An employee who requests reemployment must provide, at OCERS’ request, information to confirm the timeliness of the request, the length of military service, and that discharge from the service was not disqualifying.

ii. Position upon Reemployment

1. If the military service was less than 91 days, the individual will be promptly reemployed in the following order of priority:
   a. In the position he or she would have attained with reasonable certainty if continuously employed without the interruption of military service.
   b. However, if the individual is not qualified to perform the duties of such position after reasonable training efforts by the Employer, reinstatement will be to the same position the person held on the date of commencement of military service.
   c. If an individual returning from military service is not qualified to perform any of the positions described above, the individual will be reinstated to any other position that is the nearest approximation to one of those positions which the person is qualified to perform.

2. If the military service was more than 90 days, the individual will be promptly reemployed in the following order of priority:
   a. In the position he or she would have attained with reasonable certainty if continuously employed without the interruption of military service or a position of like Seniority, status, and pay;

b. However, if the individual is not qualified to perform the duties of either such position after reasonable training efforts by the Employer, reinstatement will be to the same position the person held on the date of commencement of military service, or a position of like Seniority, status and pay.

i. Determinations of status are based on applicable collective bargaining agreements, employer policy, or employer practices and could include opportunities for advancement, general working conditions, job location, shift assignment, rank, responsibility and geographical location.

ii. If an individual returning from military service is not qualified to perform any of the positions described above, the individual will be reinstated to any other position that is the nearest approximation to one of those positions which the person is qualified to perform.

3. If, due to a military related disability or aggravation of a disability, an individual is unable to perform the job he/she would have attained if continuously employed, and if reasonable efforts to accommodate the disability fail, the individual will be reinstated to any other position which he/she is qualified or could reasonably be qualified to perform that is equivalent in Seniority, status, and pay. If there is no such position, the individual will be reemployed in a position which is the nearest approximation in terms of Seniority, status, and pay.

iii. Rights and Benefits upon Reemployment

1. Upon reemployment after returning from military service, the individual is entitled to the Seniority, status and rate of pay, and any other rights and benefits determined by Seniority, that he/she would have attained with reasonable certainty had the individual remained continuously employed. The rate of pay must be determined by taking into account any pay increases, differentials, step increases, merit increases, or periodic increases that would have been attained with reasonable certainty had the employee remained continuously employed.

2. Employees serving in the military are treated as if they are on a leave of absence and are entitled to the same rights and benefits not based on Seniority as are provided to employees on non-Military Leaves of absence.

3. Employees are entitled to be reinstated in the Employer’s health plan upon reemployment even if they did not elect to continue coverage during the leave of absence. Generally, reinstatement will be without any waiting periods or preexisting condition limitations, except for service-related illnesses or injuries.
4. During any portion of Military Leave that is unpaid for more than (30) days, the employee ceases to earn or accrue Annual Leave. Earnings or accrual resumes on the employee’s date of return from Military Leave. The accrual rate upon return is the rate that would have been attained if the employee had remained continuously employed.

5. An employee returning from a period of military service of 31 to one hundred eighty (180) days may not be discharged without cause for a period of six (6) months after reemployment. An employee returning from a period of service which exceeds 180 days may not be discharged without cause for a period of 12 months after reemployment.

6. Military service will not be considered a break in employment service for purposes of applicable pension plans, and military service will be considered service with the Employer for vesting and pension benefit accrual purposes.

2. California Civil Air Patrol Leave (AB 485)
   a. Eligibility: An employee with at least ninety 90 days of employment and who is a volunteer member of the California Wing of the Civil Air Patrol (“CAP”), a civilian auxiliary of the U.S. Air Force, is eligible for Civil Air Patrol Leave.
   b. Leave Entitlement: An eligible employee is provided up to 10 days per calendar year, with a three (3)-day limit per emergency.
   c. Qualifying Reasons: The employee is covered only when he or she is called to respond to “an emergency operational mission.” This likely includes search and rescue missions and disaster relief efforts, but not non-emergency duties.
   d. Notice: The law requires the employee to provide as much notice as possible of the intended dates upon which the leave would begin and end.
   e. Certification: To be eligible for the leave, the employee must provide documentation of the need for the leave.
   f. Paid or Unpaid Time Off: An employee may elect, but is not required to use earned annual leave while on CAP Leave. If the employee wishes to use paid time off, the employee may be required to provide a written request to her or his manager at the time the leave is requested.
   g. Return from Leave and Reinstatement: An employee who takes CAP Leave will be restored to the position he or she held when the leave began.

3. Compliance with the Law
   The provisions stated in this policy are subject to such other terms and conditions as are provided in the Military and Veterans Code, the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) and California law (e.g., the California Military and Veterans Code).
   a. Exceptions to this policy will occur whenever necessary to comply with applicable laws.
   b. State and federal law prohibit employers from discharging or otherwise discriminating against an employee because he or she is a member of the state or U.S. military or is ordered to duty or training.

Military Family Leave Policy

Policy Statement
OCERS grants eligible employees leave to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness and/or military exigency leave to tend to issues that arise due to a covered military member’s active status. OCERS intends to administer this policy in accordance with all applicable state and federal laws, as amended.

Purpose
The purpose of this policy is to set forth the rights and responsibilities of employees seeking military caregiver leave or military exigency leave. Exceptions to this policy will occur whenever necessary to comply with applicable laws.

Scope/Coverage
This policy supersedes all previously promulgated policies on this topic and applies to all personnel who are employed by the following entities: OCERS.

1. OCERS; and
2. Orange County (County employees who work at OCERS)

Provisions

1. Military Caregiver Leave
   a. Employees eligible for leave under the Family and Medical Leave Act (“FMLA” – see OCERS Family and Medical Leave Policy) may take up to 26 workweeks of FMLA leave during a “single 12-month period” to care for a covered service member with a serious injury or illness. The “single 12-month period” begins on the first day the employee takes military caregiver leave and ends 12 months after that date.
   b. In order to be eligible for military caregiver leave, an employee must be the spouse, son, daughter, parent, or next of kin of a covered service member.
      i. A son or daughter means the covered service member’s biological, adopted, or foster child, stepchild, legal ward, or a child for whom the covered service member stood in loco parentis, and who is of any age.
      ii. A parent means a covered service member’s biological, adoptive, step or foster father or mother, or any other individual who stood in loco parentis to the covered service member. This definition does not include parents “in law.”
      iii. The next of kin of a covered service member is the nearest blood relative, other than the covered service member’s spouse, parent, son, or daughter.
   c. A covered service member includes:
      i. A current member of the Regular Armed Forces, National Guard or Reserves who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation, therapy, is in outpatient status or on the temporary disability retired list, for a serious injury or illness incurred in the line of active duty; and
ii. A veteran who has left military service (regular Armed Services, National Guard or Reserves) at any time during the five-year period prior to the first date the employee takes FMLA leave to care for the veteran, and who is undergoing medical treatment, recuperation or therapy for a serious injury or illness that the veteran incurred in the line of active duty, and that manifested itself before or after the service member became a veteran.

d. A serious injury or illness is one that is incurred in the line of duty while on active duty, or that existed before the service member’s active duty, but which was aggravated by service in the line of duty while on active duty, and that:

i. May render the service member medically unfit to perform the duties of her or his or her office, grade, rank or rating; or

ii. Is a physical or mental condition for which the veteran received a U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs Service-Related Disability Rating of 50% or higher; or

iii. A physical or mental condition that substantially impairs the veteran’s ability to secure or follow gainful employment; or

iv. An injury, including a psychological injury, for which the veteran has been enrolled in the VA’s program of Comprehensive Assistance for Family Caregivers.

e. Military caregiver leave applies on a per-covered service member, per-injury basis such that an eligible employee may be entitled to take more than one period of twenty-six (26) workweeks of leave if the leave is to care for different covered service members or to care for the same service member with a subsequent serious injury or illness, except that no more than 26 workweeks of leave may be taken within any single 12-month period.

f. Entitlement to military caregiver leave is in addition to FMLA leave for other covered reasons. However, if an employee requires time off during a single 12-month period for leave as a caregiver for an injured service member and also for a different qualifying reason (for example, birth/adoption of a child, or the employee’s own serious health condition), the maximum amount of time off for all types of FMLA leave during that 12-month period is 26 weeks. In no event may an employee take more than twenty-six (26) weeks of FMLA leave in a single twelve 12-month period, regardless of the reason(s) for the leave.

g. If a husband and wife are both employed by OCERS and take military caregiver leave, they are limited to a maximum combined total of 26 weeks for all types of FMLA leave.

2. Military Exigency Leave

a. FMLA-eligible employees may take up to 12 workweeks of FMLA leave while the employee’s spouse, son, daughter or parent (the “covered military member”) is on active duty or call to active duty status. Military exigency leave does not extend to family members of service members called to active duty by a State.

b. “Covered military members” are 1) members of the Reserves and/or National Guard who are called to active duty in connection with a national emergency, or a military action, operation, or hostilities outside the U.S., and 2) members of the regular Armed Forces who are deployed to an assignment outside the U.S.
c. Military exigency leave may be taken for one or more of the following qualifying exigencies:

i. To address any issues that arise when there is short-notice of seven (7) calendar days or less prior to the date of deployment. Leave taken for this purpose can be used for a period of seven calendar days beginning on the date the covered military member is notified of an impending call or order to active duty.

ii. To attend to childcare and school activities pertaining to the covered military member’s child.

iii. To attend to financial and legal arrangements for the covered military member.

iv. To attend counseling that is needed due to the covered military member’s active duty or call to active duty.

v. To spend time with a covered military member who is on short-term, temporary, rest and recuperation leave during the period of deployment. Eligible employees may take up to 15 days of leave for each instance of rest and recuperation.

vi. To attend post-deployment activities during the period of 90 days following the termination of the covered military member’s active duty status or to address issues that arise from the death of a covered military member while on active duty status.

vii. To provide care for the covered military member’s parent who is incapable of self-care by arranging alternative care when a change in the existing care arrangement is needed; caring for the parent on an urgent, immediate need basis; admitting or transferring the parent to a care facility; and attending meetings with staff at a care facility.

viii. To address other events that arise out of the covered military member’s active duty or call to active duty status provided that OCERS and the employee agree that such leave qualifies as an exigency, and agree to both the timing and duration of such leave.

d. Military exigency leave is an additional qualifying reason for FMLA leave and may be taken along with other qualifying reasons for FMLA (e.g. birth/adoption of a child, care for a covered family member with a serious health condition, the employee's own serious health condition). However, the maximum time off during any 12-month period for FMLA leave for any reason or combination of reasons (except military caregiver leave) is 12 weeks.

3. Extending Leave

a. If an employee’s initial request for Military Caregiver leave or Military Exigency leave is less than the 26 weeks or 12 weeks, respectively, permitted under the law, and the employee needs to extend her or his leave, he/she can request an extension of the Military Caregiver leave or Military Exigency leave. The employee must notify OCERS as soon as he/she has knowledge of the need, but not later than two business days before the anticipated return to work date, where the need for an extension is foreseeable.

b. If an employee has taken the entire 26 weeks or 12 weeks of the Military Caregiver leave or Military exigency leave, respectively, permitted under the law and still needs additional leave, he/she can request additional leave under the Authorized Unpaid Leaves of Absence Policy. The employee must notify OCERS as soon as he/she has knowledge of the need, but not later than two (2) business days before the anticipated return to work date, where the need for an extension is foreseeable.

c. Upon expiration of the time approved for Military Caregiver leave, Military Exigency or any other authorized unpaid leave, the leave will automatically terminate and the employee will be expected to return to work. If an employee fails to return to work within three (3) days after the approved Military Caregiver leave, Military Exigency leave, or any other approved leave expires, the employee may be subject to the penalties imposed by OCERS Attendance Policy up to and including termination.

4. Compliance with the Law

a. The provisions stated in this policy are subject to such other terms and conditions as are provided in the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA) and California law (e.g., the California Military and Veterans Code).

i. Exceptions to this policy will occur whenever necessary to comply with applicable laws.

ii. State and federal law prohibit employers from discharging or otherwise discriminating against an employee because he or she is a member of the state or U.S. military or is ordered to duty or training.

However, more detailed information is set forth in the official plan documents and insurance policies that govern the plans. Accordingly, if there is any actual apparent conflict between the summaries or descriptions contained in OCERS’ policies and the terms, conditions, limitations, or exclusions of the official plan documents, the provisions of the official plan documents will control. Employees who wish to inspect those documents may contact Administrative Services for that purpose.

In addition, while it is OCERS’ present intention to continue these benefits, OCERS reserves the right, to modify, curtail, reduce or eliminate any benefit, in whole or in part, either with or without notice. Finally, neither the benefit programs nor their descriptions are intended to create any guarantees regarding employment or continued employment. Unless otherwise noted in these policies, employment relationships are for an indefinite term and are terminable at will, whether at the option of the employee or the employer.

c. When an employee accrues the maximum number of hours, Annual Leave accrual will cease. Any hours that would have otherwise accrued will be paid to the employee as compensation that is not eligible to be included in the employee’s retirement benefit calculation. All Annual Leave hours earned in excess of the maximum allowable Annual Leave limit shall be paid in the pay period earned. This will not affect the maximum amount of Annual Leave included in Final Average Salary for pension benefit calculations. Accrual of Annual Leave will commence again when the Annual Leave balance falls below the maximum number of hours permitted to be accrued.

d. Employees are encouraged to work with their supervisor to plan their use of Annual Leave so that accrual of hours can continue without interruption.

e. Cessation of Annual Leave accrual could impact retirement benefits; i.e. hours accrued and cashable are used to calculate the final average salary. [SB2]

Annual Leave may be used for any reason, including:

b. Personal business.

5. Procedure for Requesting Foreseeable Annual Leave

a. An employee requesting one or more weeks of time off should submit a request for time off to her or his supervisor for approval at least two weeks in advance of the desired time-off. Exceptions to this requirement may be granted when doing so would not disrupt OCERS’ business, when the time-off is due to illness or injury to the employee or family member, or for emergency personal situations.
b. An employee requesting less than one week of time off should submit a request for time off to her or his or her supervisor for approval as early as possible prior to the desired time-off.

It is the employee’s responsibility to ensure that OCERS has been notified regarding her or his or her absence.

During each fiscal year an employee may request to be paid for accrued Annual Leave in either two (2) separate increments of up to 45 hours each or one (1) increment of up to 90 hours. Executive Employees refer to Terms and Conditions of Employment for Executives Policy.

The significant features of this plan are summarized below.

Scope/Coverage
This program is available to individuals who are employed by the following entities: OCERS.

1. OCERS
2. County of Orange (County employees who work at OCERS)

Executive Employees refer to Terms and Conditions of Employment for Executives Policy.

457 Defined Contribution
The 457 Defined Contribution Program ("The Program") is a voluntary retirement savings program that allows an employee to contribute a portion of her or his bi-weekly salary into a 457 account. Contributions to the Program are deducted from the employee’s paycheck on a pre-tax basis. This reduces taxable income which lowers your current tax liability. Plus, all of your savings grow tax-free until you remove money from your account. You can remove your money from the 457 account either at retirement or separation of employment. The Program offers a wide variety of professionally managed investment options ranging from conservative to aggressive in risk/return potential. Employees manage their account by choosing to invest their account balance among the investment options at their own risk.

For additional information go to the County of Orange Defined Contribution website.

1.62 Defined Contribution Plan
Employees of the County of Orange who are enrolled in the "1.62 @ 65" retirement benefit formula are eligible to enroll in the 1.62 Defined Contribution Plan. If you are eligible to participate in this program, employees are directed to the County of Orange 1.62 Defined Contribution web site for additional information about the plan.

The employee must cooperate and respond timely throughout the interactive process, including the job search process. If the employee rejects an offer of a vacant position that would reasonably accommodate the employee’s limitations, he or she may be terminated. The foregoing actions may occur at the same time that OCERS’ Workers’ Compensation claims manager is meeting its obligations under Workers’ Compensation Laws.

d. An employee is not allowed to return to work unless released by a physician.

SUBJECT: TRIENNIAL REVIEW OF THE CEO PERFORMANCE EVALUATION POLICY

Recommendation

1. Approve and recommend that the Board of Retirement approve revisions to the CEO Performance Evaluation Policy.

2. Approve and discuss the timeline for the 2019 CEO Performance Evaluation process

Background/Discussion

The Board of Retirement has formally adopted over 40 charters and policies and has established a review schedule that requires review of every charter and policy every three years. The Board approved a streamlined procedure to more efficiently manage the scheduled review of the charters and policies. Pursuant to this process, certain policies are to first be reviewed by the Governance Committee before presentation to the Board for approval.

In 2019, the Board approved a Personnel Committee that will “Recommend new and review existing Board policies relating to OCERS personnel matters including without limitation the CEO Performance Evaluation Policy and the Succession Policy.” Therefore, the review of the CEO Performance Evaluation policy will be heard by the Personnel Committee and will then go to the Board for approval.

The CEO Performance Evaluation Policy was adopted by the Board on February 19, 2002 and was last reviewed and revised on November 14, 2016. It is scheduled for review and approval by the Board, after review by the Personnel Committee.

CEO Performance Evaluation Policy

Staff has reviewed the CEO Performance Evaluation Policy and recommends the following edits:

1. Add to item #6 under Process and Timelines:

   In addition, the CEO’s performance for the prior twelve months may be based on the six categories below:

The revisions are set forth in red strikeout text in the attached copy of the policy.

SUBJECT: REVIEW UPCOMING TOPICS FOR PERSONNEL COMMITTEE

Recommendation
Discuss and review topics to be heard at future Personnel Committee meetings

Background/Discussion
The Board of Retirement established the Personnel Committee to assist the Board by reviewing, amending, and recommending personnel policies and procedures affecting OCERS direct employees. The Personnel Committee is an advisory committee comprised of three Board members that are scheduled to meet once a month.

Staff has identified four topics that the Personnel Committee will review in the upcoming months. Below is a list of the topics that will come forth for direction and discussion from the Personnel Committee:

1. Draft a Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) to the County of Orange regarding the working relationship OCERS Management has with County Employees working at the OCERS headquarters.
3. Draft OCERS specific classifications for County employees located at OCERS with the partnership and approval of the County of Orange and Orange County Employees Association (OCEA).
4. Convert County Employees to OCERS Direct. Discuss the steps necessary and gain support to start the process to transition all employees under OCERS employment.

Staff will provide a brief overview of the aforementioned topics at the July 31, 2019, Personnel Committee meeting. Detailed information will be provided as the topics are placed on the agenda at future Personnel Committee meetings.
