CIO COMMENTS

Ms. Murphy gave an update of recent market activity. She noted that bonds are largely down and stocks are largely up. Small Cap is up roughly 10% while Large Cap is up 4%. Oil spiked at the end of last year. Oil at $60 should be constructive in the OCERS Portfolio.

Ms. Murphy introduced a new member of the OCERS Investment Team, Joshua DePaula, Investment Analyst. Joshua is a generalist and will focus on operational work, coordinating with State Street, the cash account, and monitoring the activity of Blockchain and cryptocurrency. It is important to note that cryptocurrency is not an investable idea at this time as it is against our OCERS Investment Policy to invest in currency.
