

Introduction

The Chief Investment Officer (“CIO”) is appointed by and reports to the Chief Executive Officer (“CEO”). The CIO is responsible for leading the management and operation of OCERS’ investment program. The CIO will be an active member of OCERS’ senior management team and will actively participate in the overall administration of OCERS. The CIO will work with the OCERS’ Board of Retirement (“Board”) and the Investment Committee (“Committee”) on investment-related matters and will carry out all of his/her duties and responsibilities under the direction of the CEO.

Duties and Responsibilities

As part of the executive management team of OCERS, the CIO has obligations to OCERS, its staff, its members, its governance, and the public. The duties of the CIO include but are not limited to the following. The CIO may delegate any of the functions listed below, as necessary and appropriate.

Leadership and Responsibilities

- Formulate and recommend to the Board or its committees an investment philosophy describing the fundamental principles underlying the investment program; the investment policies and strategies required to achieve investment goals; the guidelines for the invested asset classes to manage portfolio risk; the decision-making process to ensure disciplined outcomes and the independent measurement of performance.
- Lead OCERS’ investment program and staff to implement Board-approved policies, strategies, guidelines and mandates to achieve investment objectives.
- Oversee the overall administration of investment operations to ensure the smooth implementation of strategic and tactical goals of the investment program.
- Identify and analyze trends that could have significant implications on the investment program and make recommendations to address such issues.
- Maintain a commitment to the OCERS’ Code of Ethics and Standards of Professional Conduct Policy.
- Participate and maintain contact with investment professionals to stay abreast of developments and best practices in the industry.
- Coordinate with OCERS’ investment consultants and key stakeholders, as needed, to ensure an effective implementation of Board-approved mandates.

Investment Management

- Develop, recommend and implement appropriate investment strategies to meet OCERS' stated goals and objectives.
- Select and terminate investment managers and make investment decisions:
 - Within Committee-approved asset allocation ranges, targets and asset class structures
 - In accordance with Committee-approved risk/return profiles for the particular investment mandates, applying market-reasonable fee terms
 - In accordance with Committee directions as to scope, parameters and terms for any search or solicitation (e.g. Request For Proposal, direct negotiations)
 - With written concurrence of the investment consultant
 - Subject to the following constraints:
 1. Public Markets:

Investments/redemptions shall not exceed the upper or lower bound of the applicable approved asset class or sub-asset class target range at time of purchase or sale
 2. Private Equity, Private Credit and Private Real Assets:

Investment commitments shall not exceed the upper or lower bound of the Committee-approved Annual Investment Plan, measured on a 3-year rolling basis, based on vintage year (e.g. the year in which the first draw of capital occurs)
 3. Real Estate:
 - a) Purchases/sales of core, open-end funds shall not exceed the upper or lower bound of the approved Core real estate allocation target range at the time of trade
 - b) Outstanding commitments to non-core, closed-end, drawdown vehicles shall not exceed 150% of the Non-core real estate allocation target
 4. Deviations and exceptions to the above constraints will be brought before the Investment Committee for appropriate discussion and relevant action.
- Monitor investment managers and take appropriate action in accordance with the Watch List process outlined in the Investment Policy Statement, except under exigent circumstances when the CIO may terminate an investment manager with the approval of the CEO, in consultation with the Committee Chair and/or Vice Chair
- Approve investment manager guidelines.
- Conduct a tri-annual asset allocation study, in coordination with the investment consultant, making recommendations to the Committee for approval as necessary.
